FROM FATHER JOHN: We are about to begin the annual Bishop's Appeal. I am completely in favor of this effort to support the greater work of our diocese. However, I have always thought we were subjected to over kill on the appeal. Many of you have already been directly contacted by mail. There are also extra appeal envelopes in the pews if you need them. I have been provided with form letters that no one who knows me would ever believe came from me. There are weekly appeals, announcements, and prayers lasting all the way to January of 2022. We are encouraged to have guest speakers plugging the appeal. And, of course, we have a video of our bishop to be played at all the weekend masses.

I propose that we spare ourselves all of this. Next weekend we will collect for the Bishop's Appeal. We will do this all in one weekend. Hopefully, we will make our goal. By doing so, we will demonstrate our support for the Bishop and our diocese. We will be among the first parishes to reach our goal. The bishop will not have to wonder whether or not he can depend on our parish. And, this is important, you will not have to listen to me drone on and on about money. We all win! Let's do the whole thing in one weekend.
