First Day of Autumn is September 23, 2019.

Exposition of the Eucharist and Benediction at St. Ann's Beginning on Thursday, September 5, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration every Thursday after the 8 AM Mass. Exposition will conclude with Benediction at 12 noon. A sign-up sheet is available in the back of the church in order to ensure that at least two persons are present throughout the period of Exposition. From the Manual of Indulgences: A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful who visit the Blessed Sacrament for adoration lasting at least a half hour. A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who visit the Blessed Sacrament for adoration; and a partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who offer any duly approved prayer to Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. "The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic worship. Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love. Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world by our adoration never cease." Pope St. John Paul II.

Patriot Day: This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory. We imagine the feeling of emptiness in the arms of family who at the end of the day could not find their loved ones for their welcome home hug. We remember our own feelings of emptiness as our sense of security, as our own confidence in the predictable order of life and work was radically shaken. And it is right that it should not pass from our memory. But today and in this prayer, along with our remembrance of profound loss, it also seems right that we give voice to our deep longing for peace, and with this prayer, commit ourselves to those actions that will draw us closer to our most ancient and most holy desire, peace among all God's children. Lord, grant us peace. Amen. Old St. Patrick's Church Chicago
